

NAB is obviously on the take from from private interests and it sounds like the FCC doesn't have the knowledge and the character to protect the rights of Satellite Radio listeners. Large radio and television owners need to remember that America is known to not support monopolies and if they get their way this would be a travesty of justice.